

CONFUSING WORDS

PRACTICE WORKSHEET

WORKSHEET INSTRUCTIONS:

Read each sentence and choose the correct word. For example:

Even though I didn't trust him, I took his advice and spoke to a lawyer. (advise / advice)

1. He was lost in the for three days without food or water. (desert / dessert)
2. The last time we were was in 2003. (all together / altogether)
3. If you want my , don't accept the job until you're comfortable with the salary. (advice / advise)
4. If you drive this road for about 5 kilometres, you will see the beach on your right. (along / a long)
5. He needs someone to him about his investments. (advice / advise)
6. When was the last time someone you on your outfit? (compliment / complement)

CONFUSING WORDS

PRACTICE WORKSHEET

7. There are three safety that all students must follow.
(principal / principle)
8. Please don't make me say it . (allowed / aloud)
9. Don't worry, you're safe with me. I'm not going to you! (desert / dessert)
10. I will drink coffee at any time of day, in the evenings. (accept / except)
11. If I add up the bill, it should be $356 . I think they've overcharged us. (all together / altogether)
12. She was annoyed that the school had interrupted her lunch.
(principal / principle)
13. The meal was delicious and the wine the food perfectly.
(compliment / complement)
14. I refuse to the room in this condition, it's filthy! The bathroom hasn't even been cleaned! (accept / except)
15. It's going to be day. (along / a long)
16. You told me that I was to do it! (allowed / aloud)
17. Thank you, that meal was incredible! But I'm so full, I can't eat !
(dessert / desert)